

StarClassNewsletter

StarClass season 2011/2012 took off last week-end with a conspicuous overnight snowfall reminding all who were in Bormio that summer is over and the ice season has really begun!

Over 90 skaters from 7 Countries and 34 clubs climbed up the Valtellina to take part in the first Starclass event for Seniors, Junior A and B skaters.

The Junior B men podium: Cristoph Schubert (EVD-Dresden) wins in his category preceding Tomas Giacomelli (Bormio Ghiaccio) and Felix Spiegel (SLIC-Munich) – Courtesy www.bormio.info

An extremely high skating level characterised the 3 racing days with podiums taking shape just at the last race.

Junior B ladies at the start (photo courtesy Armando Trabucchi)

For the first time, Sweden and the Malmö Isstadion, in Eric Perssons väg (careful, there are

The Icerink in Malmö (from www.skridsko.se) where the very first Short Track European Championships took place in 1997!!

6 different rinks in Malmö!!), is getting ready to welcome the Starclass family! Over 100 young skaters from 30 clubs and 7 Countries have already secured their places by entering on www.shorttrackonline.info; entries closing at 24:00 hrs on October 22nd.

The Turning Torso – the tallest skyscraper in Sweden and one of the city highlights.

Reaching Malmö by air is simple! From Copenhagen international airport, there are trains leaving every 20 minutes from platform 1 to the three Malmö train stations (more info on www.skridsko.se).

Malmö is an exceptional setting for an international competition due to its multiethnic character; almost 30% of its inhabitants are foreigners coming from 170 different countries and speaking 100 different languages; everyone is bound to find their own.